Wafa Jemal

Law Clerk

Wafa Jemal is a Law Clerk in our corporate, investment funds, and securities practice.

Wafa Jemal received her Master of Laws (LL.M.) in US and Global Legal Studies, graduating with Honors, from Case Western Reserve University School of Law in 2025. She previously completed an LL.M. in Commercial Law at Exeter University School of Law.

Prior to joining Schwartz LLC. Wafa Jemal was an M&A intern at Bird & Bird LLP in Paris, France, where she supported the corporate M&A team on cross-border French, UK and Nordic transactions, and assisted with M&A transactions from due diligence to closing, including transaction documentation.

Previously, Wafa Jemal worked as a commercial litigation intern at Saul Associés, also in Paris, where she drafted commercial litigation briefs, client memoranda and settlement agreements.

Additionally, she has also worked as an Intern at various other legal companies and organizations, including Queen's University AI Law Clinic in Kingston, Ontario, where she supported the development of OpenJustive.ai by collecting legal data and submitting access requests to French high courts. She also interned at WBW Solicitors and Chartered Financial Planners in Exeter, England, gaining experience drafting NDAs, LOIs, sales, distribution, subcontracting, and commercial lease agreements.

In addition to English, Wafa is fluent in French and Arabic, and knows basic German and Japanese. Her personal interests include playing piano, traveling, and hiking.
